

The enclosure for predatory animals, pre-war and bricked, compliments Belwederek very well. Initially, it contained facilities for wolves and African wild dogs. Currently it serves as a shelter for bears, moved here from the enclosure along Aleja Solidarności street.